At what age to kids start to eat even if they aren't hungry

If she's hungry at school, she's hungry at school; she's able to say she's full, which unfortunately means she has to start learning how to plan for feeling hungry. It may be that she's controlling her food intake quite naturally because she's filling up at dinner to make up for it. It's what she eats over the course of days that matters, not what she eats at one meal, and you can coax her
